

Conversation Starter Bingo

A conversation could change your life. We spend a large proportion of our life at work, and our enjoyment increases when we know and like the people we work with. Here's a little variation on an old favourite, designed to encourage some fun team bonding and getting to know each other better.

Instructions

- 1 PREPARE: Print out our Conversation Starter Bingo cards and the list of numbers.
- 2 DISTRIBUTE: Hand out one Conversation Bingo card to each staff member.
- 3 CALL: 'Call' 1-3 numbers per day. Use the attached tracking sheet so you remember which numbers you've called and which ones are left. For a small workforce, you might put it up on the wall at a pre-determined time each day or, for a large organisation, you might post it on your intranet or email to team leaders.
- 4 DO: When staff see/hear the number on their Conversation Bingo card announced, they choose a staff member they haven't already spoken to and ask the question, signing the name of the person they've asked.
- 5 BINGO! The objective is to be the first to get one of these patterns on a card and be the first to let you know.

Each time a number is called, staff should talk to different team member

TRACKING FORM

INSTRUCTIONS: Print this form, choose numbers randomly and announce to the team.

Choose how many numbers you want to announce per day (how long do you want it to last?), and how you plan to announce them (think about what will work best for your working environment).
